MR. JOHN T. SHORT

Dies at His Home on Lee Street Tuesday Morning at 10:30 O'clock Following an Illness of About One Year.

Mr. John Short died at his home on Lee street yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock of a complication of diseases.
 Mr. Short was taken ill about a year ago and since that time has failed rapidly. For the past several weeks he was confined to his home and the end was expected momentarily since that time.

John T. Short was born in Maysville in 1854, being 63 years of age at the time of his death. He spent his entire life in this city and was always one of the city's leading citizens. He was a blacksmith and wagonmaker by trade.
 For a number of years he was partner in the firm of Short & Donovan.
 About 20 years ago Mr. Donovan sold his interest to Mr. J. J. Kain. Since that time and until last fall he was with Mr. Kain in the business at the corner of Limestone and Second streets. His failing health caused him to sell his interest in the business to Mr. Duke White.

Mr. Short was for a number of years a member of the city council, serving three terms. This was the only public office he ever held.

He was twice married. His first wife, who was Miss Ellen Collins, died about 28 years ago. By this marriage there were two children, both of whom survive, Mrs. Louis Behan and Mr. Will Short of this city. His second marriage was to Miss Annie Powers, who died about five years ago. One child, Miss Dorothy Short, survives this marriage.

Mr. Short also leaves one brother and two sisters, Mrs. M. J. Sweeney and Miss Mary Short of Cincinnati.

Mr. Short was a faithful and constant member of the St. Patrick's Church of this city. He was a member of the Elks Lodge of this city.

The funeral will be held Thursday morning from St. Patrick's Church.
 Burial will be made in the Washington Catholic Cemetery.

There will be a dance Friday evening, January 26, at Neptune Hall. A Saxophone Trio will furnish the music. No invitations have been issued. All are cordially invited. 24-3t

Mr. C. L. Brammer of Lewisburg was a business visitor in this city yesterday and while here paid the Ledger office a very pleasant call.

Mr. George Heiser of Cincinnati is street.

HALF A MILLION

Pounds of Tobacco Were Disposed of on the Local Market Yesterday at An Average of $17.62.

The sales yesterday on the local market total half a million pounds at an average of $17.62 per hundred. This is one of the top averages for the year on a similar amount of tobacco. The prices on the weed ranged from $9 to $36, the latter price being given at the Home.

The receipts at the various houses yesterday was exceedingly heavy, hundreds of the growers delivering their crops. There is every indication that the houses will have a great deal more tobacco today than can be sold. Every road leading into the city has almost a countless number of canvas covered wagons and all are pointing to the second largest looseleaf market in the world. The sales for the week will doubtless go well over the two million mark.

The Lexington Herald Says That Maysville is a Poor Baseball Town—Blue Grass League Dope.

The Hot Stove League in various towns of the Blue Grass is trying to revive the old Blue Grass League and the chances are that some of the many rumors concerning that famous organization may be true. Certainly neither the Blue Grass or Ohio State League will be formed or probably an Ohio-Kentucky League, but that will come out later.

In the Lexington Herald of Sunday the following is part of an article regarding the baseball situation:

"Lexington, Paris, Georgetown, Winchester, Richmond, Cynthiana, Frankfort and Mt. Sterling are all mentioned for births in the new league. Some talk of including Maysville in the organization has also been heard, but it is thought that including the river town, never a success in any league, would also result in largely increased railroad fares for the Blue Grass towns. Enough fans anxious for a revival of the league should be found without any great amount of trouble in any of the above towns to make the new venture a go. Transportation from town to town could be by means of motor busses, and this would mean not only economy by also that every player could spend the night in his own home town after playing away from home in the afternoon."

Last season Maysville was the only team besides Portsmouth that was willing to finish the season in the Ohio State League. Lexington was the cause of the final split-up of the League and then to say that Maysville is a poor baseball town. The local team came out in the hole last year but not as much as Lexington or Frankfort. The statement that Maysville was never a success in any league is untrue.
